The image consists of two identical rectangular panels stacked vertically. Each panel has a teal background covered with a dense, random pattern of small, short, rectangular confetti pieces in various colors: black, yellow, pink, light blue, and dark blue. In the center of each panel, there is text. The top panel's text is in a mix of script and sans-serif fonts, while the bottom panel's text is in a mix of bold sans-serif and script fonts. Both panels also feature a small, simple line drawing of an arrow pointing to the left, with a small leaf-like detail at its tail.

A teal rectangular background filled with numerous small, colorful confetti-like dashes in shades of pink, yellow, light blue, and black. In the center, the word 'MERCI' is written in a large, bold, black, hand-drawn sans-serif font. Below it, the name 'Nouhou' is written in a smaller, black, cursive script font. A simple black arrow points from the right towards the text.
